

Day 3

Manuel Pino Garcia, CSIC

Title: Mediator-assisted cooling in quantum annealing

Abstract:

We study an architecture of quantum annealers where bosonic modes mediate the interaction between qubits. These systems have a large redundancy in the subspace of solutions, supported by arbitrarily large bosonic occupations. We explain how this redundancy leads to a mitigation of errors when the bosonic modes operate in the ultrastrong coupling regime.